

10th Annual Allied Professionals Summit Partnership Opportunities

The Allied Professionals Summit is an event sponsored by Financial Planning Association of Orange County (FPAOC), designed to bring together high-performing allied financial professionals. The Summit fosters collaboration among wealth management professionals in a non-competitive and cooperative atmosphere.

Partnership Benefits

Being a Partner of the FPA of Orange County's Allied Professionals Summit provides you with the best opportunity to present your firm and its solutions. You will:

- Gain exposure and new contacts with key audiences
- Connect with key centers of influence in the finance, tax, insurance, investments, real estate, government, and legal communities
- Educate industry professionals on your products/services and convey information in real time
- Boost your business revenue and gain new contacts
